School developed

Aboriginal Studies gives you the opportunity to discover more about traditional and modern Aboriginal culture and develop knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal peoples, histories and cultures.

This subject is very hands-on and you will have opportunities to explore areas of interest through project-based learning opportunities.

You could:

- create your own art
- work with bush tucker
- try out some dance moves
- play sports
- play traditional instruments
- learn some Aboriginal language
- investigate Aboriginal people from the past and present
- investigate local histories
